

WOMEN IN TERMINALS NETWORKING RECEPTION

MONDAY, JUNE 15

3:30 - 5:30 PM

GEORGE R. BROWN CONVENTION CENTER
Hall B | ILTA Central

Join us for an evening dedicated to connection, community, and industry advancement.

Women in Terminals is designed to convene, support, and elevate women across the liquid terminal industry. The program creates space for meaningful conversation, professional relationship-building, and the exchange of insights and perspectives.

This year, the Women in Terminals Networking Reception is open to all conference attendees and exhibitors at no additional cost. Guests will enjoy a hosted beverage experience, along with interactive elements designed to encourage participation, including a collaborative quote wall and dedicated photo opportunities.

WHY ATTEND

- Build meaningful professional relationships
- Engage in thoughtful industry conversations
- Connect with peers and leaders across the industry
- Enjoy a relaxed and engaging atmosphere
- Be part of a supportive and growing network

SPONSORSHIP OPPORTUNITIES

Now hosted directly on the Trade Show floor, this event creates greater visibility and accessibility for all attendees. Connect with terminal operators, suppliers, and industry leaders while supporting the advancement and growth of women in the terminal industry.
